PC版（改修後）

The PC version features a clean layout with a top navigation bar, a search bar, and a main banner for 'New Lifestyle' (新しい生活様式) with icons for social distancing, masks, and telework. Below the banner is a 'Topics' (トピックス) section with four featured articles. A 'New Information' (新着情報) section follows, listing recent news items. The footer includes contact information, social media links, and a banner for 'Educational Network'.

The mobile version is optimized for a vertical screen, featuring a simplified navigation bar and a prominent search bar. The 'New Lifestyle' banner and 'Topics' section are adapted for mobile viewing. The layout is clean and easy to navigate on a smartphone.

This detailed view of the mobile 'New Information' section shows a date filter for '2月28日' and a list of news items with blue links. Below the news list is a 'You are here' (ようこそ知事室へ) section featuring a photo of the Governor and a list of links to council information. The bottom of the page features social media icons for Twitter, YouTube, Facebook, and LINE, along with a footer containing contact details.
