【モデル文を読んでみよう】

Shin: Ms. Green, I took a lot of pictures in Nagasaki.
Can I show you some of them?

Ms. Green: Sure.

Shin: This is a picture taken in front of Oura Church.

Ms. Green: Oh, it's a very beautiful church.
There are a lot of people. Who are the boys making the V-sign?

Shin: They are boys from Kobe. We became friends.
Here is another picture.

Ms. Green: Oh, it's a big statue. What is it called?

Shin: It's called the Statue of Peace. It's in Nagasaki Peace Park. It's one of the most famous statues made by Seibo Kitamura.

Ms. Green: When was it put up?

Shin: It was put up in 1955. The right hand pointing to the sky means the threat of atomic bombs and the left hand means the peace of the world.

Ms. Green: You learned a lot through the school trip.
